

COOKIE POLICY

ORCA Summit Website

Last updated: June 2026

1. General Information

This Cookie Policy explains how cookies and similar technologies are used on the ORCA Summit website operated by Aidshilfe Schleswig-Holstein e.V.

The website is intended to provide information about the conference, facilitate registration, and allow submission of abstracts and participation requests.

2. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit a website. Cookies help websites function properly and improve the user experience.

3. Types of Cookies Used

The ORCA Summit website uses only technically necessary cookies required for the operation, security, and functionality of the website.

These cookies may include:

- session cookies;
- security-related cookies;
- cookies required for proper website functionality;
- cookies required to display embedded content.

No advertising or marketing cookies are used.

4. Google Forms

The website contains embedded Google Forms for participant registration and abstract submission.

When interacting with these forms, your browser may establish a connection with Google services.

For information about how Google processes personal data, please refer to Google's Privacy Policy:

<https://policies.google.com/privacy>

5. Analytics and Tracking

The ORCA Summit website does not use:

- Google Analytics;
- Google Ads;
- Meta Pixel;
- LinkedIn Insight Tag;
- Hotjar;
- Microsoft Clarity;
- or other advertising or behavioural tracking tools.

No user profiling is performed.

6. Third-Party Services

Apart from embedded Google Forms, the website does not intentionally use third-party tracking technologies for marketing or analytics purposes.

7. Managing Cookies

Most web browsers allow users to manage or delete cookies through browser settings.

Disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of the website.

8. Changes to This Policy

This Cookie Policy may be updated from time to time to reflect changes in website functionality or legal requirements.
